

Volunteer Opportunities in the Little Minyan

As a participatory community, we encourage you to think about what participation means to you. You can do this in 4 easy steps:

- Step 1: Review the opportunities below
- Step 2: Select at least one that inspires you
- Step 3: Contact the appropriate committee chair to offer your assistance
- Step 4: Show up and repeat often (especially if it feels good)

Food Stuff

Invite fellow congregants to dinner to nurture and sustain our connection to each other. Consider inviting:

- Those you know well because you enjoy being with them
 - Those you don't know well so that you can get to know them better
 - New and newer members (we have names) so that they feel welcomed into the community
- Or, sponsor an oneg! It is a sweet thing to do! Contact David Sapper for details.

Shabbat Service Stuff

There are many ways to help with worship services:

- Arrive early for a Shabbat service to help the service leader set up and greet people so that the service leader can focus on creating the sacred space.
- Think about non-members and prospective members that you'd like to invite to a service and do so.
- Offer to participate in or help lead part of a service.

Contact Yutan Getzler or Jessica Shimberg for details.

Creativity and Passion to Purposeful Participation Stuff

Do you enjoy creating art or photography? Writing? Making music? Are you a person who likes to vision or problem solve? David Sapper would like to help you find a way to lend your talents to strengthen our community. Put his offer to the test and see if he can help you and the community together play our "best game."

Holiday Stuff

Consider helping with Little Minyan holiday celebrations. Two annual favorites include:

- Tu B'Shvat Seder: This is a wonderful opportunity to take place in creating the warmth and environmental learning that occurs yearly in the winter as we celebrate the re-birth of the growing season.
- Passover Seder: Last year we had about 60 people attend. We are in the early stages of planning for April 2012 and will need the energy, talents and appetites of many Minyanites. The Membership Committee will be coordinating the planning efforts for Passover, so contact David if this interests you. Watch this space for future holiday stuff.
